Institute of Home Economics
(University of Delhi)

IMPORTANT NOTICE

In compliance with the press release of the University of Delhi dated 12th March, the classes for all UG and PG courses at Institute of Home Economics are suspended with immediate effect till April 14, 2020 (date subject to revision) to prevent the pandemic condition arising due to Covid-19.

To continue the teaching-learning process, respective teachers will provide study material and assignments to the students through e-resources as per timetable. The study material is constantly being uploaded on the college website. The study material is also being sent on student’s email groups. All students are advised to be in touch with their teachers in this regard and provide constant feedback to them. Please note that this is very important for ensuring good academic performance. In case of difficulty, the students may contact the college office.

All preventive measures to combat threat of novel coronavirus (Covid-19) and instructions vide letter from University Grants Commission dated 5th March 2020 and Press release dated 12.03.2020 from Registrar, University of Delhi to be followed.
